- + The Rt Rev Terence Brain - we were delighted to welcome Bishop Terence this week for a detailed look at the Faith Centre and Campus as a whole, an opportunity to engage with the many different people who make it such an interesting place to be.
- + Shuttleworth - Marsden Heights School Link - next week we look forward to welcoming students from both colleges in a project titled "Exploring Identity & Diversity". Based on the programme/outcomes, promises to be an interesting day!
- + Unity College - many congratulations to everyone at Unity following the Gala Launch of their new facilities last night, a magnificent celebration of music, dance and drama led by the students of the college. A wonderful reminder of the gift and talent that is our young people in all our local colleges and communities. Well done to all!
- + Sir John Thursby (SJT) - Community Art Project - do you enjoy art? If so, then come and join a hundred people making a mark on the future of the college, in this exciting community art event for people of all ages i.e. 1 - 100! Whether you are an amazing artist or complete novice - come along. Takes place at SJT on Tuesday 19th October - 0930hrs - 1100hrs. Interested? Then please ring 01282 682313 or email m.wilson@sirjohnthursby.lancs.sch.uk Please come and support our local colleges.
- + Thomas Whitham VC Exhibition - the Faith Centre will be hosting an exhibition to celebrate the life of Thomas Whitham VC, who served in World War I during w/c 8 & w/c 15 November. It will be launched on the afternoon of Monday 8th. Look out for poster next week. All welcome. Invitations going out to local schools shortly.
- + RE Showcase Celebrations - invitations were issued this week to local primary schools to join in our series of interactive workshops during w/c 1 and w/c 8 November, in the lead up to Interfaith Week. Bookings are coming in fast!
- + World Mental Health Day – my colleague Richard Hoyle represented the Centre at this important event in Nelson this week, an opportunity for voluntary and statutory bodies to promote greater public awareness of mental health and mental illness.
